

Lord Jesus, I need to hear these ancient words once again. Unite my heart to fear your name. I am so scattered, Lord; Pulled in so many directions; so easily distracted. How quickly I forget who you are. How quickly I forget your goodness to me. Unite my heart, Lord. Put it back together again. Refocus my thoughts. Clarify my purpose. Grant that I should want you more than anything else. Thank you for your many gifts, freely given. Forgive me for loving your gifts more than I love you. In confessing this I ask for forgiveness in Jesus' name. Here is my heart, Lord. Come in and rearrange things. Make me new from the inside out. Thank you for loving me even when I seem to lose my way. I love you, Lord. Do your work in me. Unite my heart to fear your name, amen.
